- In 1990 the duo La Zététique was formed together with composer-flautist Jos Zwaanenburg. Their first CD is on the Erasmus label (WVH083 incl. Five Introspections, Wolken, Wind, Schermen, Rock's Music and Ceci n'est pas une flûte). The first and third works were used in an animation film, "Verborgen Gelijkenissen" by Arlette Boerlage in 2008 and can be seen at www.youtube.com/watch?v=FFtFiKHElqs

- Since 1995: Artistic Director of the performance group:

I • D • Φ • X – Experimental Sound and Movement Theatre (idée fixe). Their first full length production was entitled A Day in the Life (commissioned by Yorkshire and Humberside Arts), premiered in March 1995. In October 1996 their second work (Y)our House was premiered. Its piece Bon voyage? was premiered in July 1997. The Lottopus series filled 1998. This suite of pieces has been documented on video and was published and distributed internationally with an accompanying booklet by Sunderland University Press in 2000. The company has been funded by five separate funding organisations in Britain and in Europe. They were in residence at South Hill Park Arts Centre in Bracknell (Berkshire) until 1998 and in that same year began a five-year partnership with the Bridgewater Hall (Manchester). In 2003 a collaborative effort with Dr. Kia Ng (University of Leeds) involving movement tracking commenced leading to the work In Transit which was premiered in April 2003.

- Some of the less radically notated scores are published by Ascolta Music – Houten NL.

Sonic Highway Exits Neglect Grammar appeared on CD (Pink Dot 001) in 2001.

Oh là la radio appeared in a binaural version on CD (MTI CD 001/2) in 2007.
Soap Opera appeared on a CD produced on the UH label in 2007. Mezihlas --
Přeshlas – Nahlas appeared on a DVD produced by Czech Radio in 2017.
